

Spring Into Tutoring

LRC Professional Development Day

Saturday, March 16, 2002

---

8:30 to 8:45 a.m. Registration and Refreshments – Dewey Lobby

8:45 to 9:00 a.m. Welcome – Dewey 177

9:00 to 10:30 a.m. Techniques For Working With Learning Disabled Students
Presented By: Dian Duranleau, JSC Learning Specialist

Learn about Learning Disabilities and how they effect a student's academic performance. Learn teaching techniques that will be helpful when working with LD students.

10:30 to 10:30 BREAK

10:35 to 11:45 Understanding Motivation
Presented By: Jo Ann Lamore, Interim Assistant to the Academic Dean

Learn why students are unmotivated as well as various techniques that will help you to motivate yourself and your learners.

11:45 to 12:30 LUNCH – Stearns Dining Hall – Tickets Provided

12:30 to 2:00 FOCUS GROUP – Learning Resource Center Services
Presented By: Thomas Stowell, LRC Coordinator

All good things must change! The LRC is in the beginning stages of exploring different ways to provide services and hire tutors. We need your input! This forum will give you an opportunity to discuss things that you like about the LRC and things that you would prefer to see changed.

2:00 to 3:00 Situational Responses
Presented By: Thomas Stowell, LRC Coordinator

Now that you've learned new techniques for working with students, put those skills to use in small skits that reflect best practice.

3:15 to 3:45 Discussion and Evaluation

3:45 to 4:00 Closing Remarks and Paperwork