

THOMAS R. STOWELL

E-mail: tom@tomstowell.com * Website: www.tomstowell.com

EDUCATION

- The George Washington University, Washington, DC 2009
Education Specialist Degree in Counseling – Career Counseling and Administration
- Johnson State College, Johnson, VT 2003
Master of Arts Degree in Education – Curriculum and Instruction
- Johnson State College, Johnson, VT 2001
Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education
Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS

- Global Career Development Facilitator, Center for Credentialing in Education Valid to: 2013
Teaching License: K-6 Elementary Education and K-12 Reading Specialist, State of Vermont Valid to: 2011

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Private Practice, Arlington, VA 2009 to Present
Practitioner – Career Development, College Planning, Educational Consulting
- ◆ Provide career counseling and college planning to individuals using established methods and assessments
 - ◆ Consult on career guidance and education with professional associations, businesses, and schools
 - ◆ Utilize technology to provide access to resources for clients and the general public
- The George Washington University, Washington, DC 2007 to Present
Assistant Director for Career and Consulting Services, University Career Center
- ◆ Direct all administrative and logistical functions including planning, assessment, and reporting for career and consulting services.
 - ◆ In summer 2009, developed and implemented an expanded career consulting model that removed barriers to access by better connecting students to appropriate human, print, or online resources.
 - ◆ Serve as a liaison to various academic and student services units within the University.
 - ◆ Lead career workshops in a variety of formats to undergraduates, graduate students, and alumni.
 - ◆ Oversee all technology tools related to career learning and experience; including NACELink.
- Advanced Degree Program Coordinator*, Graduate School of Education and Human Development
- ◆ Act on behalf of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in applying appropriate University and School Policies in complicated and potentially litigious cases.
 - ◆ Monitor academic progress of over 400 students from admission to the time of degree conferral
 - ◆ Liaison to students and faculty of the Department of Counseling/Human and Organizational Studies
- Johnson State College, Johnson, VT 2006 to 2007
Professional Development Coordinator – Campus PT3 Federal Grant Administrator
- ◆ Recruited to direct the final year of a federal Preparing Teachers to use Tomorrow's Technology grant
 - ◆ Developed print and electronic resources for pre-service teachers and college faculty
 - ◆ Served as an advisor to pre-service undergraduate and graduate students

South Burlington School District, South Burlington, VT 2002 to 2007

Transition and Planning Program Coordinator, Academic and Career Development

- ◆ Designed , implemented, and directed a required career development curriculum for over 1000 students
- ◆ Taught academic success, career planning, and transition courses to high school students
- ◆ Managed the design and renovation of a state-of-the-art academic and career learning suite
- ◆ Built relationships with local businesses, parent organizations, and higher education institutions

Johnson State College, Johnson, VT 1998 to 2002

Learning Resource Center Coordinator and Academic Advisor, TRIO Academic Support Services

- ◆ Directed the Center; including programming, hiring, budgeting, and strategic planning
- ◆ Increased the use of Center services by over 25 percent in two years by providing innovative programs
- ◆ Provided academic advising and career counseling to TRIO eligible first-year students

Admissions Counselor, Office of Admissions

- ◆ Represented the College at local, regional, and national recruitment events
- ◆ Organized programming and events including open houses, visitation days, and application review
- ◆ Served as liaison to the marketing department by co-developing materials for recruitment use

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

The George Washington University, Washington, DC 2008 to Present

Lecturer in Counseling, Department of Counseling/Human and Organizational Studies

- ◆ Co-Direct all aspects of a new Graduate Certificate Program in Career and Workforce Development
- ◆ Teach graduate-level career counseling courses using a variety of instructional models and teaching tools
- ◆ Develop curriculum for new courses, graduate certificates, and degree programs in counseling

Johnson State College, Johnson, VT 2006 to 2007

Adjunct Faculty, Education Department

- ◆ Taught graduate courses in education utilizing a week-long intensive format
- ◆ Revised curriculum for Technology in Education to better conform to current trends in the field

The University of Vermont, Burlington, VT 2003 to 2007

Adjunct Faculty, College of Education and Social Services

- ◆ Served as Treasurer of a Professional Development Schools Steering Committee
- ◆ Co-instructed courses in teacher preparation and counseling to graduate students

CHAMPLAIN COLLEGE, Burlington, VT Fall 2005 and Summer 2006

Adjunct Faculty, Community Services Division

- ◆ Taught a week-long intensive course titled "Differentiated Instruction" to experienced educators
- ◆ Co-taught a course titled "Content Literacy", including a practical component, to pre-service teachers

PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Chair, National Career Development Association Government Relations Committee 2008 to Present

Advisor, President of the National Career Development Association 2007 to Present

Curriculum Evaluator, GWU Freshman Transition Initiative 2007 to Present

Vice President and Secretary, Green Mountain Center for Gifted Education 2006 to 2007

Advisor, First Year Students, South Burlington High School 2002 to 2006